

read a book which is...

B I N G O

by a South American, African, or Asian author part of a series

recommended by a friend or librarian a book of poetry

set in a library or archive published 10 or more years ago a book about LGBTQIA+ characters or issues set in Chicago

with an extinct or magical creature a graphic novel

made into a movie

a best seller or award winner written by a woman of color checked out from the Loyola Libraries an audiobook

told from multiple points of view has a one-word title about a scientific topic meant for young adults

a dystopian novel translated from another language about women in sports

published this year

by an author whose first & last names start with the same letter

Loyola Libraries Summer Reading Bingo

<http://bit.ly/LUC-bingo19>

B I N G O

R U L E S

RULE 1

Between June 3 and August 24, read a book which fulfills the description on the bingo card

RULE 2

Fill out the form at the link below, including the title, author, and square you're fulfilling. Each book you enter = 1 entry into the raffle. A "bingo" (5 in a row) gets you 2 extra entries and a "blackout" (all squares completed) gets you 5 extra entries!

RULE 3

No "double dipping!" Each book can only count for one square

& A SUGGESTION

Check the Libraries blog for book recommendations all summer long: <http://libblogs.luc.edu/noteworthy/>

Loyola Libraries Summer Reading
Bingo

<http://bit.ly/LUC-bingo19>